Feel Safe Again, Inc. was officially established September 2003, incorporated in December, and publicly announced January 2004 during a press conference at the Statehouse in Boston. We are a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt non-profit organization for Victims of Stalking.

Our goal is to provide information and support group services to victims and survivors of stalking. Our hope is that no other victim has to live their life in fear. We want to help you "Feel Safe Again" by teaching you how to be safe again. Together we CAN make a difference!

How to Spot a Homicidal Stalker, Then Prevent His Attack by Magnus Linklater

UK - The Times - Wednesday, May 16, 2007. Tragic, unpredictable . . . lessons to be learnt. Whatever the outcome of the Madeleine McCann case, there will be no lack of inquest afterwards on the way the Portuguese police have handled the case. In some ways it has already begun. The British view, thinly disguised, suggests that things would have been better handled here. It is, at best, a questionable assumption. When it comes to the psychological profiling of determined predators, we too have a long way to go.

Monday, May 14, 2007 - RALEIGH, N.C. -- Top law enforcement officers from seven states issued a letter to MySpace.com on Monday, asking the social networking site to turn over the names of registered sex offenders who use the service.

The letter asks MySpace to provide information on how many registered sex offenders are using the site, and where they live.

What About Me? Guidebook for Siblings of Abducted Children - Featured On: MyFoxBoston

Next month on June 27th, it will be exactly seven years since Warren lifeguard Molly Bish was abducted and killed. Molly was 16 years old. I'm sure you have seen Molly's parents, John and Magi many times on the news. They have been tireless in their efforts to make Massachusetts safer for children.

But did you know Molly Bish had a brother and sister? Heather and John Jr., for the most part, have stayed in the background, letting their parents be the public face of their family tragedy.
