How to Stop a Stalker by Detective Mike Proctor

If you are a victim of a stalker or suspect that you or others that you know might be, then this book, written by a veteran homicide/predator crimes detective with over thirty one years on the job, should give you the means, not only to assist in your protection, as well as become an active participant in the prosecution of your stalker.

Detective Mike Proctor, who has actively investigated and consulted on well over 200 stalking cases since 1991, has structured this guide so that the reader can easily grasp the stalking phenomenon in its entirety. If you would like more information, please go to www.detectivemikeproctor.com.

The cyberstalker can assume any identity, and often impersonates many identities at the same time. He or she appears to come out of nowhere, but is often invited into the victim's life through a computer and the Internet.

Without leaving his chair, the cyberstalker can obtain a person's birth certificate, marriage/divorce records, family history, school records, employment history, photographs, financial records, a detailed layout of his or her house including aerial photographs, home/work telephone numbers, hobbies, and even the victim's favorite music.
