How To Lose Anyone Anywhere by Michael Scott

Hi! My name is Michael Scott, and I am the author of "How To Lose Anyone Anywhere." You might call me a professional loser, since I am in the business of assisting people to "get lost." After more than three years of research, I have written this manual to assist people to be able to take adequate measures to insure their privacy, and freedom from individuals who may be disrupting their lives.

It is primarily written to assist victims of stalking, although others may find this information useful to protect themselves and their families from becoming such victims. I believe as a result, that this manual is unique, and stands alone in the respect that it has been created with the victim of stalking primarily in mind.

Stalking Victims Can Seek Justice in Civil Court

From the Newsletter of the Stalking Resource Center, Volume 4, Number 2, Fall 2004

Most victims know that protective orders and criminal prosecutions are the first line of defense against stalkers. Yet victims have an additional option for bringing stalkers to justice: they can file civil lawsuits against stalkers and third parties who contribute to the crime. Through civil lawsuits, victims may gain financial compensation and the means to hold stalkers liable for their crimes.
