“REFLECTIONS OF A LIFE WITH FREEDOM AND PEACE”

Feel Safe Again, Inc. was officially established and publicly announced January 2004. We are a non-profit organization for Victims of Stalking.

Our goal is to provide information and support group services to victims and survivors of stalking. Our hope is that no other victim has to live their life in fear. We want to help you "Feel Safe Again" by teaching you how to be safe again. Together we CAN make a difference!

Tri-State Stalking Conference

Several Feel Safe Again, Inc. board members recently attended a stalking conference presented by the Stalking Resource Center of the National Center for Victims of Crime. The new information we received will help us to continue assisting victims as effectively as possible.

There were still several very important topics, like stranger stalking and self-defense, that we felt needed to be discussed in more detail. With this in mind, we will be including information from several stalking experts in our next issue. Until then, try taking a quiz offered by the Stalking Resource Center called..."How Much Do You Know About Stalking?".

Stalking: A Handbook for Victims by Emily Spence-Diehl

A Message From The Author...The publishing company of this book went out of business and the book is no longer in print. I now own the copyright and give permission for service providers to photocopy and distribute the book, so long as they do not charge fees for the distribution. Click below to download the full book as a pdf file.

I am planning a second edition which I hope will be in print late next year (2005) or early 2006.

Stalking: Guidance for Police Officers

Although this guide is specifically for the UK, it's written in an easy step-by-step very informative format.

The Met and the Home Office have launched a stalking investigation guide for police. The guide, written by Met Detective Inspector Hamish Brown, gives police guidance on how to investigate stalking and other harassment offences, and includes a section with advice for victims.
